

What & Where to donate

Please take your donations to zip codes where it is needed the most. They almost ALWAYS need volunteers as well. Time out of your day could change someone's life, not matter how big or small a change. ALWAYS Donate BEFORE you throw away!!

Gently used clothing & shoes, linens towels, children's toys

- Women's Shelter
- Homeless/Relocation Shelters
- Children Advocacy Centers
- Local non profit & Mutual aids

*Children uniforms can be taken to local school

*Costume items can be taken to the local theater or school

Gently used indoor/out door furniture, decor, knick knacks, lamps, dishes, misc electronics

- Women's Shelter
- Homeless/Relocation Shelters
- Furniture bank
- Habitat for Humanity

*Call and contact places before you drop off. They may not have updated their website with items they are in immediate need of. You may be storing items that they are desperate for

Luggage, back packs, purses, fabric grocery bags, clean hair brushes/combs, hygiene items

- Women's Shelter
- Homeless/Relocation Shelters
- Low income schools
- Children Advocacy Centers
- Recreation Centers
- Homeless/Relocation Shelters
- Local non profit & Mutual aids

*Most will also take accessories

*Camping equipment can be donated to Homeless/Relocation Shelters & Local non profit & Mutual aids.

Office equipment, office/school supplies, books, filing cabinets

- Low income schools
- Children Advocacy Centers
- Recreation Centers
- Local non profit & Mutual aids

*Donate non-childrens books to mom and pop books stores.

Habitat for Humanity will pick up

- Furniture
- Tools
- Lawn equipment
- Paint
- Appliances
- Building materials

*Each city location has different items they will accept

Old Paint, batteries, expired prescriptions medications & glasses

*Check with your city guidelines on proper disposal. Most have drop off sites.

*Take broken misc electronics to mom & pop repair store

*There are electronic recycle companies & non profits that accept broken cell phones

Help get items that no longer serve you out of your space and into the hands of someone who could REALLY use it now!

I AM SO PROUD OF YOU FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE!!!

